

PRACTICE FOCUS

Peter Sayer, a skilled and seasoned real estate attorney who has worked in the public and private sector, has expertise in commercial litigation, construction, zoning and land use and transactional matters. He has assisted property owners, developers, contractors, engineers, architects and other real estate professionals in resolving real property and land use disputes from inception to conclusion. He also regularly engages in extensive contract, lease and license negotiation and drafting, and works in a collaborative, cost-effective manner to protect and maximize the value of his clients' investments in real estate.

Mr. Sayer appears regularly before all state and civil courts in New York State and before various administrative bodies, handling matters in their entirety and counseling clients through the process. His experience involves trial and appellate work in general commercial litigation and all real estate matters.
