

PRACTICE FOCUS

James A. Gillis's practice is focused on estate planning, transfer and income tax planning, and trust and estate administration in Virginia. Mr. Gillis regularly assists clients with the selection of fiduciaries, and the preparation of revocable and various types of irrevocable trusts to avoid probate, reduce transfer tax, protect assets for future generations, and provide support for beneficiaries with special needs. Mr. Gillis also assists with the administration of estates and trusts.

ACTIVITIES

Mr. Gillis is an active member of the Washington, D.C. Estate Planning Council and the Alexandria Bar Association, and has served as an income tax preparer in the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program in the Philadelphia and D.C. metro areas.

EDUCATION

- J.D. (cum laude), Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law
- B.S. (biology), Villanova University
- Virginia
- District of Columbia

ADMISSIONS

- Virginia
- District of Columbia
- New York
- Pennsylvania

JAMES GILLIS

Counsel, Tysons Corner

.....

PRACTICE AREAS

- Asset Protection Planning
- Estate Administration
- Estate Planning
- Estates and Trusts