

PRACTICE FOCUS

Seth R. Gottlieb has a wide range of experience in general corporate law, acquisitions, structured finance, and commercial lending.

Mr. Gottlieb routinely represents financial services companies, commercial lenders, and financial asset investors and investment funds in complex asset-based loans including bridge loans, acquisition finance, accounts receivable and purchase order financing, factoring, and other forms of financing. Seth also represents companies in connection with mergers and acquisitions and divestiture transactions.

Mr. Gottlieb represents foreign and domestic funds and other types of financial firms in the purchase and sale of life settlements as well as life settlement providers in connection with regulatory compliance and with the preparation and negotiation of documentation required to complete life settlement transactions.

Mr. Gottlieb has extensive experience representing distributors and vendors in the veterinary and dental fields including drafting and reviewing distribution and vendor agreements.

SETH R. GOTTLIEB

Principal, New York

•••••
PRACTICE AREAS

- Business Law and Transactions

EDUCATION & ADMISSIONS

- Hofstra University School of Law, J.D.
- State University of New York, B.A. Summa Cum Laude
- New York

ACTIVITIES

- New York State Bar Association, Member
- Hofstra Law Review, Hofstra University, Former Member