PRACTICE FOCUS

R Touhey Myer focuses his practice on litigating complex patent matters before the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, District of New Jersey, and the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Most recently, Touhey’s patent litigation practice has focused on serving as lead and local counsel in Hatch-Waxman matters in Delaware and New Jersey. Additionally, Touhey practices before the USPTO, prosecuting patent and trademark matters. Touhey has particular experience evaluating the market value of patent portfolios to determine the viability of litigation campaigns. Touhey maintains a specialized practice in copyright infringement defense, where he uses knowledge acquired from previously enforcing copyright infringement campaigns to assist his clients quickly resolve allegations of infringement. Outside of his intellectual property practice, Touhey serves as outside general counsel for many of his corporate clients, specifically in the Pharmaceutical and Wine and Spirits spaces.

Before joining Offit Kurman, Touhey served as an Assistant Solicitor for Montgomery County, Pennsylvania and Managing Partner of the Delaware Office for an intellectual property firm based in Philadelphia. An active member of the local intellectual property community, Touhey serves as the President for the Philadelphia Intellectual Property Law Association (PIPLA).

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Served as lead and local counsel on multiple Hatch-Waxman litigation matters before the District of Delaware, obtaining favorable rulings and settlements on behalf of my clients.
