

PRACTICE FOCUS

Anna Gray LeBlanc’s practice is dedicated to family law, representing clients for matters such as child custody, child support, equitable distribution, post-separation support, alimony, contempt, breach of contract/specific performance, separation agreements and premarital agreements. Mrs. LeBlanc works diligently with clients to make sure they obtain the best possible settlement and is a keen believer that family law issues should be resolved by ensuring that the client has control over the outcome. Mrs. LeBlanc encourages clients to work hard to resolve issues through mediation, collaborative law sessions, and settlement meetings, but she diligently litigates cases that cannot be settled.

Born and raised in Lincolnton, North Carolina, as one of four children, Mrs. LeBlanc feels fortunate enough to have been raised by long-married parents in a home full of books, art, and music. Mrs. LeBlanc is a Magna Cum Laude graduate from North Carolina State University with a Bachelor’s degree in Cultural Anthropology, and is greatly interested in traveling and other cultures. Mrs. LeBlanc understands the importance of stability in the home and is dedicated to helping families smoothly navigate the turbulence of divorce.

Mrs. LeBlanc is certified as a family law specialist by the North Carolina State Bar Board of Legal Specialization. Additionally, Mrs. LeBlanc is a graduate of the NITA Family Trial Advocacy Institute, which admits only 40 students each year, and she has honed her skills from this program in the courtroom.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

“Mrs. Anna Grey Leblanc has been representing me for the past year. My divorce (custody/child support/equitable distribution) has been very high conflict. Mrs. Leblanc advocated for me when I was still afraid to stand up for myself. She advised me patiently, recognized when I needed additional support, and advocated for me when I didn't have the courage to speak up for myself. A year later, I am so happy that she guided me through those dark moments. Now, I can appreciate how organized, efficient, knowledgeable, intelligent, responsive, timely, and honest she is. She has been a blessing throughout this stressful phase of life. I could not imagine anyone else representing me or handling my case with such a high level of professionalism.”

“Anna has been great to work with. She is a great addition to this firm, and I followed her from her previous firm. As a single first time father, Anna has been immensely valuable in guiding me through the custody process and helping me understand my rights as a dad. While my case is currently ongoing, I know that I would be lost without her. She is my second lawyer in this process, so I have had a taste of what a mediocre lawyer looks like. Along with being incredibly sharp, and always fighting for me, Anna is very responsive. Going through this process can be incredibly stressful, and having someone as responsive and knowledgeable as Anna fighting for me and my son has made a world of difference.”

- Gabe Foster, Client

“Anna LeBlanc represented me for a post divorce matter of Breach of Contract. I must say that she is really good at what she does and likes to keep things simple knowing family law can be overwhelming and complicated while mixed with emotions! I could not have asked for a better outcome than what she helped me get! Her work, knowledge and passion are above and beyond expectations. 5 stars across the board with 7 stars for keeping emotions and finances under control!! I will definitely recommend her for any family law matters be it big or small.. Cheers!”
