PRACTICE FOCUS

Amira Khan, an Associate in Offit Kurman's Family Law, concentrates her practice across the full spectrum of divorce and child custody issues. She is certified in Collaborative Law and can practice as a Best Interest Attorney where she represents children in highly contentious cases.

Other matters that Ms. Khan handles in her practice are:

- Complex financial matters regarding business valuations and partnership interests;
- Reaching significant custody resolutions in highly contentious custody cases and modifications;
- Representing victims of domestic violence in highly emotional disputes.

Ms. Khan has also practiced real estate law. Working with mortgage lenders, servicers and banks she specialized in mortgage foreclosure.

Ms. Khan earned her J.D. at Widener University, Delaware School of Law. During law school she was an active member of the Public Interest Law Alliance and a student ambassador. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice at George Washington University.

Ms. Khan is currently admitted to practice in Maryland and eligible for waiver into the District of Columbia.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

In 2019 named to Maryland Rising Star by Super Lawyers, a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Only 2.5% of attorneys are selected to Rising Stars.

Ms. Khan is currently admitted to practice in Maryland and eligible for waiver into the District of Columbia..

"I chose to practice Family Law because I want to be an advocate for families during their time of need."
