LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (Nov. 4, 2021) – Today, the USA Bobsled/Skeleton Foundation (USABSF) announced that Bryn Sherman has joined its board.

Bryn is a Principal with Offit Kurman, and for more than 30 years she has represented public corporations and large private companies in numerous industries, including financial services and real estate. An expert in risk management and strategic planning, she helps executives and boards advance the strength and objectives of their companies and teams in highly complex and dynamic markets. She is looking forward to helping USA bobsled and skeleton athletes reach the podium in Beijing 2022 and for years to come.

“We are thrilled for Bryn to join the board and add her strategic oversight to our foundation efforts,” said Fran Kirley, Chairman for USA Bobsled and Skeleton Foundation. “As we look forward to Beijing and beyond, this is a critical time for our foundation and athletes, and we are confident that the addition of Bryn will support our efforts and mission significantly.”

“I feel privileged and honored to take on this board position at such an exciting time for USABS,” said Bryn. I look forward to contributing to further the Board’s strategic mission and make a positive impact for these tremendous athletes.”

Bryn joins Chairman Fran Kirley, CEO and Chairman of Nexion Health Care, one of the largest nursing home chains in the United States providing skilled nursing and rehabilitative care on 38 campuses in Colorado, Louisiana and Texas; and members Oscar Tang, Founder and retired President and CEO of Reich & Tang, an asset management advisory firm for banks, broker dealers and investment advisors that is now part of Natixis; Peter Converse, former President and CEO of Virginia Commerce Bancorp, Inc. and Virginia Commerce Bank; and Steve Yelland President and CEO of JF Rohrbaugh Company, a leader in the pallet industry, producing, recycling and repairing industrial wood packaging and custom solutions for a variety of packaging and shipping needs.
