SPECIAL NEEDS PLANNING

An important part of our Estate And Trusts legal services is advising clients who have family members with special needs. We make sure that families are well educated on care options and proper management of assets. We are very familiar with community and government resources available for individuals with disabilities and design plans to maximize utilization of these programs. Overall, we give clients the peace of mind that comes with knowing that their special needs loved ones, of whatever age or disability, will be properly protected and well cared for throughout their lives. We assist families with:

- Special Needs Trusts
- Guardianships
- Understanding of Government Benefits and Structuring Plans that will not Compromise Access to Benefits

WHO WE DO IT FOR

Our Estates and Trusts team of attorneys represents business owners, corporate executives, professionals, and individuals who have accumulated wealth and require estate planning, estate administration, trust administration, and asset protection planning. In addition, Offit Kurman Attorneys At Law Elder Law Care Planning Practice Group represents clients who are unable to care for themselves and may require medical assistance planning.
