PRACTICE FOCUS

Mi (Jemi) Cho is an attorney in Offit Kurman's Family Law Practice Group. Ms. Cho assists clients in all aspects of divorce including child custody, child support, and the division of property and assets. In addition, Ms. Cho handles traffic, criminal and protective orders.

She understands that each client has a unique set of challenges, issues and needs. Using her negotiating skills, she communicates with opposing counsel to reach the most advantageous resolution for each client. Her professional and personal experiences have shaped the way Ms. Cho assists her clients as she understands how it feels to suffer loss. Her experiences fuel her passion to assist clients during a hardship.

As a certified student attorney Ms. Cho developed and implemented case strategies for child support, probate, guardianship, and social security disability cases. She drafted motions individually and jointly, including affidavits, motions for contempt, appeals of dismissal, and probate petitions.

Ms. Cho speaks fluent Korean.

"Each client is unique and deserves catered representation. I think of myself as my client's voice, not just their attorney. I strive to find resolutions that support and meet my client's needs today and in the future."
