

PRACTICE FOCUS

Revée M. Walters is a Principal attorney in the Landlord Representation and Commercial Litigation practice groups, and is a member of Offit Kurman's Diversity Committee. Revée represents small and large businesses in a wide variety of industries in state and federal court litigation, mediations, arbitrations, and agency proceedings. The primary focus of her practice is Fair Housing Act training, counseling and litigation defense, as well as the representation of property management companies and landlords, real estate agents and brokers, and real estate buyers and sellers in diverse and complex housing and employment law matters. This representation includes drafting commercial and residential leases, management agreements and partnership agreements related to real estate; advising and representing clients in cases involving subsidized housing, breaches of lease, wrongful detainer, tenant holdover, licensing and registration related violations, and housing discrimination; and advising clients on employment issues, including compliance with federal and state employment laws, discipline and discharge decisions, handbook and policy development, and medical leave and disability issues.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

In 2017, 2018, and 2019, Ms. Walters was named a Maryland Rising Star by Super Lawyers, a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Only 2.5% of attorneys are selected to Rising Stars.
